

BEAUCLERE IN FRONT

Washington Cup Winner Repeats on Closing Day.

BENNING FALL MEETING ENDS

Wise Ones Believed to Have Made a Killing on Eastern in First Race. Kara Wins from Essex in an Exciting Steeplechase—Kimbball in a Good Thing—Possessing Defeated.

The curtain fell on the Eastern racing season at the Benning track this afternoon, and it was by far the best day of the Washington Jockey Club fixture. The track was fast, the weather fine, and the crowd big.

The feature of the card was the maximum of $500 for three-year-olds and upward, the distance being three miles. It was the longest race of the season. Beauliere maintained his Washington Cup form, and the son of Salvatore went to the post a 6-to-2 favorite, with Ironsides second choice.

When the barrier was sprung, old Banker was the first to get in motion, followed by Right Royal, with Beauliere and Ironsides striding leisurely in the rear. As they passed around the first time Ironsides was making the pace, but it was evident that Beauliere was only waiting on the field. Swan was holding him hard, while the horse fought for his head.

Goes Into First Place.

As they strode around the second time—the finish of the two miles—Swan led him out a little, and he easily shot into first place. For a short spell, Right Royal looked like challenging, but Swan loosed the ribbons, and Beauliere drew away as the crowd cheered. It was all over then, and the Salvador gelding galloped along smoothly to the finish, winning with the greatest ease by five lengths from Ironsides. Right Royal tired badly on the home stretch, and was beaten out of the show money by Banker.

The opening event of the day proved a good thing for the Governor Farm Stable and it was a further proof of the fact that other known ones, made a killing on Eastern. There was as good as 6 to 1 against him for a while.

Thistledeale was the favorite at 6 to 1. Eastern broke away in front of Thistledeale on the flank. At the three-quarters Thistledeale was in the van, but Eastern nailed the favorite in the next few strides. Thistledeale earned the place money by a length and a half from Panique.

Steeplechase Close Event.

The steeplechase proved a rattling race between Kara, the money favorite, and Essex, who fetched the price of 6 to 1. The pair ran almost side by side throughout the race, but when they hit the stretch Kara had more speed, and won by four lengths.

Quite a lot of money changed hands in the third race, over the defeat of Trey of Spades, a 20-to-1 shot. Bellwether was the favorite. Trey of Spades dashed to the front at half the journey and he kept there until a furling from the finish, when Bellwether was behind his head and he won easily.

Kimbball was the real good thing in the fifth race, and the ring was hit hard, as Kara was backed heavily. He led all the way, but was nearly nipped by George C. Hall in the last few strides. Howard Shean, at 6 to 1, accounted for the last event of the day.
